OCD : Obsessive Compulsive Disorder

Advanced Laser Therapy Clinics'... Stop OCD Today... programme is a multi-faceted, holistic Drug Free therapy specifically designed to...

Relieve Physical and Psychological Anxiety levels to reduce psycho-reactive behaviours and obsessive compulsive responses without the use of drugs.

Support the Body (and specifically the brain) with vital nutrients to enhance overall physical and psychological well-being, aid physical and psychological recovery, relieve fatigue and sustain positive on-going change.

Facilitate Lifestyle Change/s for enhanced overall physical and psychological well-being with effective Solution Oriented Cognitive Behavioral Therapies (CBT) and self-empowering management strategies for lasting long term change.

Advanced Laser Therapy Treatments combine the very latest laser technology with vital nutrient support strategies and highly effective counselling to provide the safest, easiest and most effective Obsessive Compulsive recovery programme. One 3 Hour Treatment is all that is required to...Stop OCD Today... and provide the tools to help you stay comfortably in control into the future.

Low Level Laser Therapy (LLLT) stimulates the brain's release of endogenous neuro-chemicals, our naturally occurring opioids (feel good chemicals/endorphins) to assist in overcoming the physical and psychological symptoms of anxiety, addictive/responsive and obsessive compulsive behaviours. The calming effects of laser are supported with vital nutrients to provide the body with crucial resources needed to recover, support the central and peripheral nervous systems, enhance brain function, lift energy levels and maintain ongoing physical and psychological well-being. Solution Oriented Cognitive behavior modification techniques provided during and post treatment help overcome residual psychological attachments with easy-to-use tools for ongoing effective self-management. It's safe, easy and very effective!
