Physical & Psychological Anxiety & Depression

Advanced Laser Therapy Clinics'... Stop Anxiety & Depression Today... programme is a multi-faceted, holistic Drug Free treatment specifically designed to...

Relieve Physical & Psychological Anxiety & Depression without the use of drugs.

Support the Body and Brain with vital nutrients to enhance overall physical and psychological well-being, relieve nervous anxiety, reduce stress, fatigue and sustain positive on-going change.

Facilitate Lifestyle Change/s for enhanced ongoing physical and psychological well-being with effective Solution Oriented behavioral modification techniques, Cognitive Behaviour Therapy (CBT) and self-empowering strategies for sustainable long term change.

Advanced Laser Therapy Treatment Programmes combine the latest laser technologies with vital nutrient support strategies and highly effective psychotherapy to provide the safest, easiest and most effective anxiety and depression recovery strategy.

One 4 Hour Treatment is all that is required to...Stop Anxiety & Depression Today... and provide the tools to help you stay comfortably in control into the future.

Our Low Level Laser Therapy (LLLT) stimulates the brain's release of endogenous neurochemicals, our naturally occurring opioids. These are the feel good chemicals responsible for our psychological & physical well-being! They play a crucial role in overcoming the physical and psychological symptoms of stress, anxiety & depression. The calming and restorative effects of laser are supported with vital nutrients to provide the body and brain with the resources needed to support the central & peripheral nervous systems, enhance energy levels and maintain ongoing physical and psychological well-being. Solution Oriented psychotherapy during and post treatment provides easy to use tools to help overcome residual psychological attachments and anxious/depressive thinking. It's safe, easy and very effective!
