Physical & Psychological Depression

Advanced Laser Therapy Clinics'... *Stop Depression Today... programme is a multi-faceted, holistic Drug Free therapy specifically designed to...

Immediately Relieve Physical & Psychological Depression without the use of drugs.

Support the Body with vital nutrients to enhance overall physical and psychological well-being, assist physical & psychological recovery, relieve fatigue and sustain positive on-going change.

Facilitate Lifestyle Change/s for enhanced ongoing physical and psychological well-being with effective Solution Oriented behavioral modification techniques and empowering self-management strategies for lasting long term change.

Advanced Laser Therapy Treatment Programmes combine the latest laser technologies with vital nutrient support strategies and highly effective counselling techniques to provide the safest, easiest and most effective depression recovery strategy.

One 3.5 Hour Treatment is all that is required to...Stop Depression Today... and provide the tools to help you stay comfortably in control into the future.

Our Low Level Laser Therapy (LLLT) stimulates the brain's release of endogenous neuro-chemicals, our naturally occurring opioids. These are the feel good chemicals responsible for our psychological & physical well-being! They play a crucial role in overcoming the physical and psychological symptoms of depression. The euphoric and restorative effects of laser are supported with vital nutrients to provide the body with crucial ongoing help needed to recover, support the brain and the nervous systems, enhance energy levels and maintain ongoing physical and psychological well-being. Solution Oriented behavior modification techniques during and post treatment provide easy to use tools to help overcome residual psychological attachments and negative/depressive thinking. It's safe, easy and very effective!
